But what if he is insanely hot and wants you as bad as you want him? Would you be able to resist temptation? Would you even want to? Bosses can be so demanding, you know...Natalie has had a crush on her boss since the beginning of time. Well, at least it felt like that to her. And, until a fateful New Year's party at the office, she thought she didn't stand a chance to get the one man she wanted. Because it would have been too good to be true. But she forgot about a tiny, yet significant detail, one she didn't dare believe. He felt the sparks, too. And, being her boss an' all, he had a plan. Oh, and he had mistletoe, too... o "Hey Natalie, how is it going?"I glance up at Trish, who's normally too gloomy to notice anyone else in the room, but probably she had a few drinks herself. It's free booze tonight, after all, and I don't think any of the employees would miss out on that. Sebastian is nowhere to be seen though. In fact, he hasn't been out of his office since..."Oh dear, are you okay? You look flushed."Trish's comment makes me blush some more, but I decide to blame it on the martini, waving my empty glass in the air, turning it upside down, too, to show her my exaggerated disappointment. She just shakes her head with a sad smile and offers to bring me another one. I nod absent-mindedly, wondering where Sebastian is. I should be glad for having this party on the fifth floor, otherwise I would have ended up glancing at his door for the better part of the evening. Not that I'm not stupid enough to do the same mentally, but at least nobody knows that. "Nobody knows what exactly?" I spin around, realising too quickly how bad an idea it was, as I practically fall into the arms of the gentleman that's always there to catch me. Would it hurt him to fall with me instead? Frustrated, angry and humiliated, I try to break free, but he tightens his hold, saying something about me being too drunk. Well, duh..."I think I have a right to be drunk. You might be my boss, but you sure as hell aren't my father, so stop patronising me." Sebastian's eyes go wide for a moment, which gives me a perfect opportunity to get lost in his bluish-green iris. Is it me, or are they a few shades darker right now? Damn, I don't think I'm drunk enough yet. He clears his throat, brushes a strand of hair out of my face, and leans closer, so only I hear what he has to say to that: "I sure as hell don't want you to think I was your father. I'm not the 'daddy' type of guy." Is he referring to what I think he's referring to? And why is he still so damn close? "Yeah, right, you don't like to be called boss, either." "Shit, I didn't just say that out loud, did I? Judging by the laughter that fills my heart with warmth, I did indeed." Well, I guess I could make an exception, if..." He trails off, brushing his fingertips along my cheek, and I think I moan. Loudly. Is he drunk, too? Why the sudden change? Do I care? No. But I do gulp. "If?" He tilts his head slightly, measuring me up with his eyes. What is he looking for? Either way, his gaze is too intense for my liking, so I frown, pushing him away for a second, only to pull him back the next for balance. He laughs again, the sound leaving me breathless. Even if he is laughing at me... o

Falling in love wasn't the plan. Cedar Mongoyak knows who she is and what she's good at. She's a polar-bear shifter, a go-getter, and part of the biggest shifter alliance in the world: Trinity. She can handle anything. Or so she thinks before her new assignment in Eurio, Alaska. Set the place straight? Done. Keep an eye on an unstable Alpha polar bear without falling head over heels for him? No promises. Gale Blanc's kind of sexy should be illegal, and his cub is too cute for this world. What's a girl to do when she has to stay under the same roof as them and spend Christmas with them too? Give in. Probably. Highly commended in the Passionate Plume Award for best paranormal romance. From the talented Lisa Gardiner comes a novel packed with magic, alpha male dominance, explosive passion and suspense. *Like 50 shades on acid- Good Reads review *Well worth the read- Ashley Lister MMF paranormal romance, BBW romance, Bisexual menage romance, sexy Christmas romance, fairy tale. It's a lovely night for a sleigh ride- until something wicked takes the reins. When Nick and Kris, the half-fae sons of human mothers, aren't using Santa's sleigh in the off-season to make deliveries for their booming sex toy business, they're setting off sensual fireworks in the bedroom. Yet they dream of a feminine third to complete their lives. There's only one woman they can picture filling that role: Lilly, the girl they both dated in college. Lilly thought earning extra money stripping was a good plan, until she's left battered, bruised, and stuffed in a back-alley trash can. Her rescuers turn out to be the dark, brooding Dom and the golden-haired sub whose faces-and shockingly entwined bodies-are still the stuff of her most searing fantasies. While she's more than willing to take them up on their offer of one perfect night of magic, she questions whether anyone can break into Nick and Kris's powerful bond. But there's someone who's been waiting for this moment all Lilly's life. An evil psychopath who holds the secrets of her past-unless Nick and Kris can unravel them in time to save her from a fate worse than death. Editorial Reviews Praise for the novels of Lisa Gardiner Captured by Fae (previously Wicked Wonderland) is the first title I've read from the talented Lisa Gardiner. Combining a strong narrative with a wicked imagination, Lisa tells a story that is sexy, shrewd and savvy. Admittedly, there are some aspects of Wicked Wonderland that I thought were dark. But they're balanced by a passion and power that enchant, excite and entertain from the opening pages to the triumphant denouement. Well worth the read.-Ashley Lister-Prolific writer and key note speaker at Eroticon (Previously published by Samhain Publishing as Wicked Wonderland) You can also grab book 2 Claimed by Fae available now.
