A second chance. A conflict between love and ambition. Genevieve Porter was forced to flee the art world of Manhattan after she blew the whistle on the shady practices of a powerful dealer. Now she owns a small gallery in the scenic beach town of Cambria, California. For Gen, this is a place to regroup; she's poised to restore her name in the art world and return to New York in triumph. When she meets Ryan Delaney, a cattle rancher who's more than he appears to be, she's ready for a sexy roll in the hay—literally. But as her feelings for him become more than casual, she realizes that his roots on the Central Coast go back generations, and it's going to be a challenge to lure him away from his family's land. If they're going to make a life together, one of them will have to give up old ideas, old goals—old feelings about what success means, and what makes a place a true home. CAMBRIA SKY is the second book in the Main Street Merchants series by Linda Seed, but it can be enjoyed as a stand-alone romance. This guide is written especially for do it yourself folks, trade schools, and other non-professional repair technicians. How to fix the most common ovens and cook tops, including all major appliance brands. A comprehensive guide with specific information as to differences in design among manufacturers gives clear, easy-to-follow instructions for making repairs, advises when a professional should be called, and teaches maintenance procedures "The book my patients have been waiting for." Dr Peta Wright, gynecologist and women's health advocate Hormone Repair Manual is a practical guide to feeling better in your 40s, 50s, and beyond. It explains how to navigate the change of perimenopause and relieve symptoms with natural treatments such as diet, nutritional supplements, and bioidentical hormone therapy. Topics include: - Why everything is different after "second puberty." - How perimenopause can be a tipping point for long-term health. - The four phases of perimenopause. - The role of testosterone and insulin in weight gain. - How to speak with your doctor about hormone therapy including natural progesterone. - Treatment protocols for all common perimenopause symptoms including night sweats, insomnia, migraines, and heavy periods. - Risk reduction for osteoporosis, heart disease, and dementia. Written by best-selling author and naturopathic doctor, Lara Briden, the book is backed by evidence-based research and real-world patient stories. Praise for Hormone Repair Manual: "The book my patients have been waiting for -- a science and whole woman based approach to the menopausal transition that will give women the wisdom, language, and practical tools to navigate menopause and unveil this time for what it really is -- one of the most transformative and empowering chapters of a woman's life." Dr Peta Wright, gynecologist and women's health advocate "This lively, clear and supportive book provides positive and helpful information that many women need as they approach perimenopause and beyond." Jerilynn C. Prior MD, author of Estrogen's Storm Season "Essential reading for all women over 40, and their doctors!" Dr Natasha

Andreadis, gynecologist and fertility specialist "Evidence-based natural solutions for optimizing women's health and wellbeing in their 40s, 50s and beyond." Dr Fatima Khan, menopause specialist Enjoy the complete Main Street Merchants series by Linda Seed, with four full-length novels. Moonstone Beach: She's a divorcee who's still struggling to recover. He's notorious for his reckless ways with women. What could possibly go wrong? Kate Bennet owns a small bookstore in the breathtaking Central Coast town of Cambria, California. Two years out from a divorce that left her emotionally fragile, she's starting to think that maybe she's ready for love again—or at least for a fling with a hot man. Jackson Graham is a local chef who's controlling when it comes to food, careless when it comes to love, and temperamental when it comes to just about everything. When Kate's friends set things up between Kate and Jackson, she expects some casual pleasure followed by a hasty goodbye, but Jackson's long-term crush on Kate means that he's in this one to win. The problem is, neither he nor Kate knows whether he can change the self-defeating habits that usually send women scurrying for the door. Cambria Sky: A ruined reputation. A second chance. A conflict between love and ambition. Genevieve Porter was forced to flee the art world of Manhattan after she blew the whistle on the shady practices of a powerful dealer. Now she owns a small gallery in the scenic beach town of Cambria, California. For Gen, this is a place to regroup; she's poised to restore her name in the art world and return to New York in triumph. When she meets Ryan Delaney, a cattle rancher who's more than he appears to be, she's ready for a sexy roll in the hay—literally. But as her feelings for him become more than casual, she realizes that his roots on the Central Coast go back generations, and it's going to be a challenge to lure him away from his family's land. If they're going to make a life together, one of them will have to give up old ideas, old goals—old feelings about what success means, and what makes a place a true home. Nearly Wild: She's finished with men. He's made it his mission to change her mind. Rose Watkins has never been afraid of anything. She wasn't afraid to leave home and cross the country on her own at eighteen, she's not afraid to stand up for herself against judgmental bullies who criticize her unconventional looks, and she's not afraid to chase her dreams, no matter how elusive they may seem. But after a phony date with doctoral candidate Will Bachman—concocted to help him save his ego in front of an ex-girlfriend—Rose realizes that the possibility of true love is perhaps the scariest thing she's ever had to face. Fire and Glass: She's engaged to a man with a promising future. But even as she makes plans to say "I do," another man is hoping that she won't.... It wasn't easy for Lacy Jordan to watch her best friends get paired off one by one, while she was still single and toiling away at a low-paying job. Maybe that's how she ended up engaged to her mother's chiropractor—a man who looks good on paper, but whose stiff manner and controlling ways leave Lacy cold. When steamy-hot glass artist Daniel Reed rescues Lacy from a dicey situation, she finds herself feeling things for him that she's never felt for another man. But Daniel's reluctance to accept her love—and everything that comes with it—means he's the one who needs an adjustment, before both of their hearts are shattered.
